

What should you do when a friend is having a seizure?

Stop and make the area safe

Place something soft under your friend's head

Time when the seizure started

Ask one person to find help

Roll your friend into a recovery position when the seizure has finished

Stay with your friend until he/she feels better

Cut out these pictures and stick them in the correct boxes above.