

The brain is the most amazing and precious organ in your body. Look at what it does for you.

The brain and the body working together.

During an epileptic seizure any part, or the whole part, of your body can be affected for seconds or a few minutes.

During an epileptic seizure what happens to your body?